THE MUMMY CASE

Carol - I wasn't going to write in your book but they talked me into it. Fancy that. I hope you don't mind. You are a nice girl.

No Marge to Help Her Out!

Myrt's Solo Broadcast

IN $50,000 INJURY SUIT

"Myrt" didn't have "Marge" with her when she did a special broadcast yesterday, and the broadcast wasn't before a microphone; it was from the witness stand before Superior Judge Paul McWilliams.

"Myrt," who is Mrs. Myrtle Vail of 2000 Lincoln Park West, was being sued for $50,000 by Emil Olson of 6438 N. Leavitt st., a former stationary engineer, who alleges he was permanently injured when the radio entertainer's car struck him two years ago.

Olson testified he had alighted from a street car at Washtenaw and Lincoln sts. when he was knocked down.

Mrs. Vail's testimony sought to show that she was not to blame. A jury is hearing the case.

Mrs. Myrtle Vail, of "Myrt and Marge" radio fame, defendant in suit.

Dear [illegible]

Have known one another
a very long time and I don't think I've ever met such a unique (that is the best term I can think of) person.
Anyway I shall come over and see you with [illegible] sometime soon. There are [illegible] things I have to say to you
(May 38th, 19??) Easter
Well kid, I've awaited and hoped that I'd hear where I was from you.

The MUMMY CASE

INTRODUCTION

The Mummy Case staff of 1941 presents to the student body of University High School this, the second volume of the annual.

This yearbook represents the work of not just a small group, but many students, some of whom were not members of the staff. It is the result of student initiative and cooperation. All major decisions in its production were made by a group vote. Thus, it represents a practical application of the ideals of democracy which are becoming increasingly precious to us at this juncture of the world's history.

It is the sincere hope of the staff that this book may be worthy of the best traditions being built up in our progressive, ever-changing school.

May the perusal of these pages now and in future years recall pleasant memories of days spent at the University High School so dear to all of us.

Dedication

To the average boy and girl, in recognition of the indispensable role which they play in the University High School, this book is dedicated. So that you may know them more fully a description is herewith presented.

The average boy or girl:

Is friendly;
Has a fairly pleasing appearance, but certainly is no Robert Taylor or Hedy Lamarr;
Maintains satisfactory grades, but has no great love for studying.
Has occasional dates;
Never has quite all the spending money he (or she) wants;
Likes to dance—or would like to be able to;
Jellies sometimes;
Likes to read some, but shies away from high-brow literature.
Talks in class during discussions;
Stays for detention at least once a semester;
Enjoys some sports but is not an outstanding athlete;
Has a fairly good knowledge of current slang;
Enjoys movies fairly frequently;
Attends basketball and football games with pleasure;
Enjoys some hobby—though he probably won't admit it;
Likes to have a good time but can be serious upon occasion.

This is the average U. High student. Perhaps no one individual can completely fit such a description. But there is no one who is not described at least in part by it. It is to each person who in some way resembles this portrayal that this, the second volume of The Mummy Case, is sincerely dedicated.

U. High introduced the first six-man football team into Jackson County last fall. With no previous football experience and little practice, the team won two games and lost five during the season. They defeated Mounds and Valier, but lost two games to Sesser and Royalton and one to Valier. The team placed third in the Southern Illinois Conference. Mr. Leonard Keefe, coach, is anticipating a much better season next year.

The team will lose nine boys this spring. They are: Wilburn Bittle, Wallace Cagle, Ralph Carter, George Elston, Bob Hall, Gene Lautz, Ray Thomas, Russell Thompson, and James Wheat. Bob Hall, who was made center on the All-State six-man football team, will be missed greatly by the football boys next year. Those who will be back for the team next year are: Edward Betts, Charles Friedline, Lawrence Hill, David McIntosh, Bill Parrish, and Bob Reynolds.

B A S K E T B A L L

The 1940-1941 season of the U. High Lynxes was an outstanding one. During the Christmas holidays the team placed second in the Southern Conference Tournament by defeating Crab Orchard and Sesser. Hearst-Bush won in the final game with U. High causing the team to receive second rank. In conference play nine games were won and four lost. The season taken as a whole shows fifteen games won by the Lynxes as compared with thirteen losses. Highlights of the season was the Homecoming game with Carbondale Community High School. This second of the city championship series was won by C. C. H. S. in a game which provided many thrills for fans of both teams, and helped to make the first Homecoming successful. The season ended with U. High's losing their first game in the regional tournament.

Only three members of this year's team were of the class of 1941, and, consequently, the team has bright prospects for the 1941-1942 season. Those who graduate are George Elston, Ray Thomas, and Russell Thompson.

Much of the credit for the success of this season's team must go to Coach Rockwell McCreight whose good sportsmanship has done much to win the respect of all who know him.

Mixed Chorus

This year, 1940-1941, marks the second year for the mixed chorus which is composed of members of the Girls' Glee Club and the Boys' Chorus. They are from the four upper classes: freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors. During their first year they placed second in both district and state contests. They worked hard this year. Their goal: a rating of first in the spring contest, enabling them to enter state wide competition.

First row—Bateman, Vaughn, Stafford, V. Robertson, Betts, Carter, H. Johnson, Smith, Greathouse, E. Johnson, Potts, and Mitchell.
Second row—Hilton, Craig, McMillan, Logue, Ridgeway, C. Robertson, Kirk, McIntosh, Boals, Halterman, Hunter, Moseley, and O'Daniel.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Floyd Wakeland, is in its second year of existence. Last year in the contests it took second in district and second in state. This year they are entering the district contest and hope they are fortunate enough to go to state. Nine of the members of the Glee Club make up a Small Ensemble, they are: Carrington, Mitchell, Vaughn, Craig, Moseley, Hilton, Greathouse, Smith, and Johnson.

First row—Mitchell (pianist), Reid, Neckers, Warren, Shryock, Perryman, Austin, Bryant, Hanson, Patterson, Allen, Wakeland (director).
Third row—Schneider, Eason, Hilton, Robertson, Hunter, Sellers, McMillan, Craig, Moseley, Bateman, Colp, Spear.

Men's Glee Club

The Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Floyd Wakeland, has had a highly successful year. The club made plans to enter the vocal contest held each spring. As yet the club is small, but the voices are promising, and the group is looking forward to future years.

The club is composed of students enrolled in all six years of high school. Membership is voluntary and a year's participation entitles each to a pin and one-fourth credit. It is one of the most valuable extra-curricular activities offered at U. High.

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club of University High School has been highly successful this year. Sponsored by Miss Wells and her student teacher, Miss Milligan, the club has presented a number of plays given in the assembly. Some of these plays were: "Dumb Dora," "The Spider," "While the Toast Burned," "Where But in America," and a number of short skits. The club meets every other Thursday and is entertained with a program.

First row—Williams, Houghland, Fisher, Bryant, Schneider, Hanson, Greathouse, (president), Austin (secretary).
Second row—Smith, Vaughn, Miles, Warren, Goforth, Bahr, Shryock, Reid.
Third row—Fox, Allen, Potts, Hilton, Dallmann, Eason, Mrs. Collard (student teacher).
Fourth row—Barnard, Miss Wells (sponsor), Hankla, J. Dallmann, Miss Milligan student teacher).

Phi Lambda Kappa

The Phi Lambda Kappa was newly organized this fall. It combines the Latin and French clubs of last year. The purpose of the club is to promote interest in foreign languages. Meetings are held twice each month, one is a business meeting and the other a social meeting. Outstanding events of the year included a Roman Banquet and initiation.

First table—Mossholder, O'Daniel, Dallmann, Greathouse, Potts, Bateman.
Second table—Day, Lackley, Logue,Robertson, Boals, Brumley, Miles (not shown).
Third table—Hilton, Vaughn, Yates, Johnson, Mitchell, Carrington, Hagler.
Standing—Dunn (student teacher), Meyer (student teacher), Elston, Frank, Mrs. Rieke (sponsor), Watson.
Other members—Ridgeway, Thomas, R. Thomas, Rossen, Biggs.

Poetry Club

The Poetry Club was organized for the first time during this past winter for the purpose of fostering a better understanding and appreciation of good poetry. Originated and sponsored by Miss Florence Wells, the organization had the active leadership of the English III student teachers, Mrs. Robert Collard and Miss Ellen Maynard. It was agreed not to have any formal organization. Thus, no officers were elected, and no permanent roll of members was made. All who had an interest in poetry were equally welcome at the bi-weekly meetings. Choric reading was the principal activity of the club.

First row—Patterson, Spear, Fisher, N. Bryant, Perryman, Mrs. Collard (student sponsor).
Second row—Miles, F. Smith, Potts, Hanson, Houghland.
Third row—Austin, Hilton, J. Dallmann, Greathouse, Fox.

Assembly Committee

The Assembly Committee, sponsored by Mrs. Rieke, was formed in order to plan more representative assembly programs. The organization has had four luncheons this year at which new programs were planned and old ones evaluated. Sixty percent of the student body appeared on programs the first semester. The Committee agreed that the year's programs were the best U. High has had for some time. Every club and home-room was represented on this Committee.

First row—Brewer, Hagler, Martin, King, Mrs. Rieke (sponsor).
Second row—Greathouse, Miles, Smith, Robertson.
Third row—Thomas, Cecil, Logue, Frank.
Fourth row—Paterson, Vaughn, Elston, Klein, North.

Sphinx Staff

The purpose of the Sphinx Staff is to publish weekly all the news and to mold opinion for the good of the school. The staff is composed of representatives from each home room and the students in Miss Bach's journalism class. Mary Anne Stearns was editor-in-chief during 1940-41.

Library Council

The Library Council, under the sponsorship of Miss Troutt, has completed another successful year of service to the University High School. One of the hilights of the year was the Book Crusade Week. 500 books were added to the library by this campaign. New furniture purchased this year has added to the attractiveness of the library. Programs were presented to the student body to encourage wider use of the library. This club has also given valuable training for future librarians to its members.

First table—Ridgeway, Cecil, Manis, Wright.
Second table—Reid, Eason, Robertson, Creager (president), Williams (secretary), Brumley, Boos.
Standing—King, Martin, Miss Troutt (sponsor).

Best wishes
Betty

Natural Science Club

The Natural Science Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Dilla Hall, has taken several very educational trips this year. Some of these were visits to the New Era Dairy in Carbondale and to the liquid oxygen plant which is located near Harrisburg, Illinois. The club plans to visit the radio station WJPF at Herrin. A number of interesting and educational experiments have been performed at club meetings. One of these was taking, developing, and enlarging pictures.

First row—McIntosh, Boals, Williams, Renfro, Russell (vice-pres.).
Second row—Wright, Armstrong, Parrish, Friedline, Etherton, Spindloe.
Third row—Masters, Prince, Elston (pres.), Williams, Bryant (sec.), Hall (sponsor).

The F.F.A. Club

The F. F. A.'s charter was granted in 1940 with the hopes of members learning how to conduct and take part in public meetings; to speak in public; to buy and sell cooperatively; to solve their own problems; finance themselves; and to assume civic responsibility. The members, who are enrolled in a Vocational Agriculture course, conduct supervised farm projects at home and will engage in local and state judging, public speaking, and athletic contests.

First row—Childers, Kelley, Cox, Watson, Page, Schoolcraft, Brandon.
Second row—Morris, Waller, Rich, Champion, Klein, Freeman.
Third row—Huppert, Parrish, Fite, Kirk, Johnson.
Fourth row—Cole, Heininger, Phemister, Hagler, Frost, Cazel (sponsor).

Social Science Club

The Social Science Club was organized in 1938 under the sponsorship of Miss Gladys Smith. The members of the club were students who were especially interested in Social Studies. Meetings were held twice a month at which historical numbers were the chief entertainment. This year the club planned two highlights, a pioneer tea and an all day trip to a nearby historical spot.

Sitting—Miles, F. Smith, Dallmann, R. Larson, Greathouse (secretary), P. Pulliam, Graff, Miss Smith (sponsor), B. Smith, Robertson, Potts, M. Lipe, Doetch, Holder, B. Lipe.
Standing—McKenzie, B. Thomas, Hagler, N. O'Daniel (president).

FFA

Band

University High Band has been organized for three years under the direction of Charles Paterson. For the last two years they have won first in the district contest. Last year they went to state and won a second. They had a very high ranking at state and the judges said they would have received a first if they had had the instruments.

First row—Day, Robertson, Carrington, E. Johnson, T. L. Bryant, Armstrong, N. Bryant, Hawkins, Colp, Hunter, Paterson, Frank.
Second row—Miles, Hilton, Yates, Neckers, DeLap, Gher, Moseley, Friedline, Vaughn, Logue, Ragland, Levelsmier, Brown, Helton, H. Johnson.
Standing—Allen, Betts, Greer, Charles Paterson (director).

Orchestra

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Charles Paterson, is one of the smallest organizations in the school, partly because so many classes are in session when orchestra practices. They have appeared several times on assembly programs. Since only larger organizations are allowed to enter state contests, the orchestra has entered none. Members receive individual and small group instruction from Mr. Paterson and his student teachers, Mr. Charles Stief, Mr. Parks, and Miss Kate Bunting.

Seated—McIntosh, Mr. Paterson (director), Frank, Friedline, Gher, Dallmann, Hawkins, Stafford, Mitchell, Colp, Brown, Robertson, Day.
Standing—Betts, Logue, Parks, Bunting, Stief.

Alumni Association

The Alumni Association was organized for the first time this year. Anna Mary Schroeder, class of '39, was elected first president of the new Association. This picture was taken at the Alumni Banquet, a feature of U. High's first Homecoming held last fall. Faculty members and U. High seniors were guests at the Alumni Banquet held at Hank's Cafe prior to the all-school party, climax of two days Homecoming activities. It was the active alumni that introduced plans to U. High's Student Council for an annual Homecoming. All former U. High School students are eligible for membership with a small entrance fee to cover social events.

CARBONDALE

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council, sponsored by Hal Hall and Gladys Smith, is University High School's governing body. It was formed in order to help make the high school more democratic. It is composed of two representatives from each home room who are chosen by the members of the class they are to represent. The council meets each week. At these meetings school problems are discussed, committees are appointed, and decisions made concerning school affairs. The council also makes the school budget, distributing the funds among the home rooms and various organizations.

The state convention was held at Carbondale in 1940. About eight hundred students came from other high schools all over the state. A state convention is to be held this year. Our council is sending its senior members and one junior member as delegates. The junior, Norma O'Daniel, is running as second vice-president of the state student council. The senior members were chosen because it will be their last time to attend the convention as members of University High School. These members are: Robert Pulliam, president; Patricia Greathouse, Mary Ellen Potts, and Robert Hall.

Homecoming

University High School celebrated its first homecoming January 18. At this time the queen of 1941 was crowned.

The opening event featured a parade procession with U. High's band, students, and float artists competing for awards.

As a special toast to former graduates, an alumni banquet was held at Hank's, a local restaurant, where seniors of 1941 chatted with seniors of the 1930's.

Movie minded people enjoyed a full length film, "Peck, Bad Boy at the Circus," in the Little Theater preceding the coronation of the queen.

The aroused spirit of the celebration for a victory in a basketball bout with the Lynx's rivals, Community High, was not dampened as they fell to defeat before Carbondale fans. A tense atmosphere was finally relieved on the last evening of the celebration when Mary Ellen Potts was crowned queen of University High School for 1941. Elaborate decorations festooned the occasion. The queen was attended by two girls from each of the five grades, while the seniors were represented by four attendants. The attendants were: Bette Allen, Agnes Greer, Mary Anne Stearns, Lucille Parrish, Myra Milton, Katherine Moseley, Betty Hunter, Mary Ellen O'Brien, Willa Mae North, Barbara Weller, Phyllis Austin, Harriet Fisher, and Joan Goforth.

A happy, first homecoming ended with a modern dance for the high school and the alumni.

Dear Carol:

Best of luck to one of my best friends - Carol don't forget all the good times we have had together — St. Louis or the Journalism trip, Wow! And don't forget all the fun we had working on the paper. Hurry and get out of school and I'll be waiting as a freshman for at least two years. Best of luck and success to you Carol —

Lots of Luck

Bette
